

Member Name: Julian Welge

Please evaluate your team member on a 0-100% scale for each of the following items to the best of your ability. Justification for each of your ratings is required. First list your rating, then provide justification for that rating.

1. Present for team meetings and contributed to discussion

100%: Only meetings that were missed were due to unpredictable work schedule which I can't hold against him

2. Tasks assigned were completed in a timely fashion and with good quality

100%: Nothing was held back by timing and everything they worked on was fluid with other parts of the project

3. Communicated well in person as well as electronically

100%: Utilizing Discord voice/video chat as well as screenshare was super helpful for communicating and collaborating

4. Was genuinely interested in working on the project and homework and seeing everything succeed.

95%: Was very invested with making visuals to help understand concepts

5. Overall contribution to the project and homework as a whole

98%

Provide any general comments you feel necessary to further describe your team member.

Would you like to work with this person again in the future?

Yes

Member Name: Ayden Klontz

Please evaluate your team member on a 0-100% scale for each of the following items to the best of your ability. Justification for each of your ratings is required. First list your rating, then provide justification for that rating.

1. Present for team meetings and contributed to discussion

100%: Again, missed "meeting" was due to work

2. Tasks assigned were completed in a timely fashion and with good quality

95%: Work meshed well with the rest of the project and was successful at integrating everything smoothly, but was a little delayed with pushing a few changes

3. Communicated well in person as well as electronically

100%: Once again, Discord was utilized well for meetings and helped with collaboration

4. Was genuinely interested in working on the project and homework and seeing everything succeed.

95%: Needed to make some minor compromises to make sure we had an operable product to present in the end

5. Overall contribution to the project and homework as a whole

95%

Provide any general comments you feel necessary to further describe your team member.

Would you like to work with this person again in the future?

Yes

Member Name: Ian Kaiserman

Please evaluate your team member on a 0-100% scale for each of the following items to the best of your ability. Justification for each of your ratings is required. First list your rating, then provide justification for that rating.

1. Present for team meetings and contributed to discussion

95%: Missed one meeting not related to life events

2. Tasks assigned were completed in a timely fashion and with good quality

100%: Work integrated well with the work that other teammates did

3. Communicated well in person as well as electronically

100%: Discord calls were effective for collaboration and synergy of work

4. Was genuinely interested in working on the project and homework and seeing everything succeed.

95%: Progress was shaky at times but was determined to make sure things got done in the long run

5. Overall contribution to the project and homework as a whole

95%

Provide any general comments you feel necessary to further describe your team member.

Would you like to work with this person again in the future?

Yes